Press Release

transport logistic Americas & air cargo forum Miami

Visitor registrations at a high level

- FedEx, Rhenus, ACL Airshop, UPS, Miami Airport: Five well-known sponsors make the accompanying conference program possible
- 63% of registrations at first and second management levels
Core topics digitization, sustainability and resilience

Registration for the air cargo forum Miami and transport logistic Americas trade show and conference has been open since mid-August. The level of initial registrations exceeds expectations. Around two thirds are decision-makers from the first and second management levels. The conference and trade show will be held Nov. 8-10, 2022, at the Miami Beach Convention Center. A total of 5,000 attendees and 200 exhibitors are expected.

In the three-day accompanying conference program, partners from science, business and the media currently occupy 22 slots with presentations and workshops. More are in the planning stage. Five logistics brands are sponsoring the program. Rhenus and FedEx are each taking over one of the first two conference days in full. UPS, ACL Airshop and Miami Airport are supporting individual sessions. That is why the conference is complimentary for visitors. "Education is key and the logistics event in Miami is a unique opportunity. Over all three days, attendees will be able to gain essential knowledge for our future and discuss with top-notch speakers on-site. We are pleased to help facilitate this world-class program." said Steve Townes, CEO at ACL Airshop.

Program with themes of our time

Sustainability, digitization and resilience run through the conference. People, trends, and innovations are the focus of the sessions. Among others, high-ranking industry experts discuss in the CEO Panel. TIACA awards the 2022 Hall of Fame Inductee in one session. From career opportunities in air freight and logistics to supply chains that save lives, presentations show what people in the industry are accomplishing. Across all modes of transport, contributions from partners such as BVL -The Global Supply Chain Network, Your German Logistics and the news platform Cargo Forwarder Global will highlight various trends in global logistics chains. On the subject of digitalization, Fraunhofer reports on the transport logistic exhibitions

The international industry network of transport logistic exhibitions consists of ten events. In addition to the leading international trade fair transport logistic in Munich, transport logistic China takes place every two years in China, and the transport logistic China Forum alternates with it every year, both in Shanghai. In Turkey, Messe München and EKO Fair Limited organize the logitrans International Transport Logistics Exhibition in Istanbul every year. Together with TIACA, Messe München is organizing air cargo forum Miami & transport logistic Americas, which will be held every two years in Florida starting in November 2022. From September 2023, transport logistic Southeast Asia will also be held in Singapore for the first time. At all trade fairs, the air cargo sector plays an essential role. As part of transport logistic in Munich, air cargo Europe is the world's largest air cargo trade fair, while air cargo China is the leading event in Asia. In addition, air cargo India and air cargo Africa are independent trade fairs. Also part of the transport logistic exhibitions is the cooperative transport logistic India @ CTL in Mumbai, India.

Messe München

Messe München is one of the leading exhibition organizers worldwide with more than 50 of its own trade shows for capital goods, consumer goods and new technologies. Every year, a total of over 50,000 exhibitors and around three million visitors take part in more than 200 events at the exhibition center in Munich, at the ICM – Internationales Congress Center München, the Conference Center Nord and the MOC Veranstaltungszentrum München as well as abroad. Together with its subsidiary companies, Messe München organizes trade shows in China, India, Brazil, South Africa and Turkey. With a network of associated companies in Europe, Asia, Africa, and South America, and with around 70 representatives abroad for more than 100 countries, Messe München has a truly global presence.
